Chamber of Music Festival

The 2025 Quadra Island Chamber Music Festival is a musical celebration not to be missed. This year's festival runs from June 23 to 27 and features four wonderful concerts in a variety of beautiful venues.

The festival will open and close with concerts at the Quadra Island Community Centre on Monday and Friday evenings. On Tuesday the concert takes place at the beautiful, intimate Cape Mudge United Church, and Thursday brings our much-loved outdoor concert at the SouthEnd Farm Winery, a special evening available exclusively to those with the bundled ticket package. Our Artistic Director, Phil Hansen, has curated a rich and varied lineup of classical and contemporary works, performed by exceptional musicians from around Canada. We are still looking for host families for 3 musicians. Please email us at: qichambermusic@gmail.com if you are able to assist with this!

New this year, it is a joy to welcome Vancouver Symphony principal flutist Christie Reside, with repertoire including Astor Piazzolla's Selections from History of the Tango and Mozart's beloved Quartet for flute and strings in C Major. Performers and detailed program information are available at our website - www.quadrafestival.ca.

Bundled tickets will be available starting April 15, and individual concert tickets go on sale May 1. You can purchase them online through the Tidemark Theatre website, or in person at Copper Coast and Inspirations on Quadra Island.

Spring Cleaning with a Twist

Think kitchen cupboards and pantry. We know we ought to use our canned and dried goods in the order we purchase them. First in - first out. It's recommended we rotate our inventory to avoid spending money on what will later become stale-dated food. There was that bargain on canned chick peas; but we didn't get around to making the hummus. And now, gardening season is nearly here and extra time is unlikely. What to do?

Food Banks Canada no longer accepts canned goods that are past their "best before" date. So those cans of chick peas may be headed to the compost or garbage. A rainy hour would be well spent going through your stock of canned and dried items. If you think it's unlikely that you will use some of them, consider putting them in the Community Fridge behind the Medical Clinic. Someone, whose pantry isn't full, will appreciate them.

What about your fridge? How often do you find compostables? If you've overstocked on veggies or you'll be away for a few days, consider offering the food to friends & family – or put it in the Community Fridge.

The Food Recovery Program thanks the gardeners that stock the Community Fridge with their excess harvest. These contributions and the donations from both Tru-Value stores, other local businesses and the Campbell River Food bank provide the foundation for the Food Recovery Program. Let's add to this by looking into our cupboards and sharing what would otherwise be wasted.

The Community Fridge is a part of the ICAN Food Recovery Program which is a project of the Garden Club/ICAN Food Security team. We are hoping to have a second Community Fridge in Heriot Bay in the near future. Meanwhile, the Food Recovery Program has expenses that include electricity at the Sorting Station and the Community Fridge. So, if your idea of spring cleaning is to open your wallet, the Food Recovery program will be grateful for the donation.

Spring Wildlife Reminder

As we move into fawn season, it's important to slow down on our roads and check tall grass carefully before mowing or walking through, as young deer often shelter out of sight. If a fawn is found alone, it is best to leave it undisturbed — its mother is usually nearby.

We are also entering bird nesting season, with nests appearing in trees, shrubs, and sometimes on the ground. Giving nesting areas extra space helps protect young birds during this critical time.

New Editor, who dis?

Hi friends! As our Editor Savannah flies from the nest to prepare for the busy hospitality season, I'm excited to be stepping in as your new Editor of the Bird's Eye! A huge thank you to Savannah for her care & energy during her time at the helm!

I've been serving as ICAN's Operations Coordinator and working on the paper behind the scenes since last October, but you might also know me from my work with cocktails and whisky. As a lifelong writer with a deep love for community storytelling, I'm thrilled to step into this role.

I have lots of ideas for fresh content and ways to make the Bird's Eye an even stronger voice for our Island. But I'd love to hear from you - what do you want to see in the Bird's Eye? Whether you have an idea, article, poem, photo, event, or memory to share, I'd love to connect.

This is your community paper, and your voices are at the heart of it. I'm just here as the new navigator.

Heriot Bay Fire Hall #2 Replacement Project Approved

The Heriot Bay Fire Hall #2 Replacement Project was approved through an Alternative Approval Process (AAP) that concluded on Thursday, March 27, 2025. The AAP addressed the adoption of "Fire Hall #2 Construction Borrowing Bylaw" which authorizes the South Quadra Island Fire Protection District to borrow up to $2.9 million to finance the replacement fire hall.

Approval by an Alternative Approval Process is obtained when less than 10% of eligible property owners within the District submit an opposition Elector Response Form by the deadline. Of an estimated 1668 eligible property owners, 149 response forms were received.

Upon learning that the Fire Hall #2 Replacement Project would go forward, Fire Chief Sharon Clandening stated, "We are excited to move forward in improving the infrastructure that enables our firefighters to serve the community effectively for years to come."

Chairman of the Board of Trustees Murray Abercrombie said, "On behalf of the Trustees of the South Quadra Fire Protection District, I am pleased to see that this much needed project has the support of the majority of eligible Quadra Islanders and can proceed to construction, with completion in 2026/2027. As we look forward to the next steps, I would like to acknowledge all the work done by the Trustees and Fire Department Members to get to this point. As we have stated throughout the process, we intend to proceed, mindful of costs, to build a functional hall that will meet all current standards and requirements, and will serve the needs of the community well into the future."

We will be providing regular updates as this project moves ahead. Please continue to check the project website www.qifirehall2.ca and our Facebook page, or sign up for our email list at www.qifirehall2.ca/get-involved.

Thank you Quadra Island for your support.
